Anne's concept

Anne is the main adventurer of the novel and the first dreamer.

Her design was originally created so that Anne could not be confused with anyone! It turned out to be quite simple, without too many details, but at the same time memorable, she is so alone and it is very flattering to her self-esteem.

She was drawn to look like a real prototype, but at the same time so as to be a different, no less gorgeous girl. And I am one hundred percent satisfied with her image!

Anne's concept

I chose the format of the novel with portraits in order to make them as much as possible, and thus reveal the full range of emotions of the main character.
And a sly squint adds to Anne's cunning!
